Wedding Form

A wedding day is very special for every Bride and Groom. There are no hard and fast rules regarding wedding day protocol; no right or wrong ways to celebrate this very special occasion. This is your day and our ultimate goal is to make you happy!. Based on our years of experience, we will make suggestions and recommendations. In the end it is your decision how your wedding and reception will be organized, which announcements will be made, and what type of music will be played. Do not hesitate to email or call our office to discuss any questions you may have while filling out this form.

The Reception

About Your Grand Entrance: It is up to you to decide who will and will not be announced during the Grand Entrance. It is your choice whether or not to announce Grandparents, Parents, Flower Girl, Ring Bearer, etc.. Your decision may be influenced by factors such as who is in attendance or an individual's health and mobility. These decisions are yours and should not be questioned by friends or family.

Grand Entrance Song This is the song that will be played as the Bridal Party is being announced into the reception hall. (Suggestion: Sirius by the Alan Parsons Project is a great song that builds intensity as we lead up the entrance of the Bride and Groom.

Other Grand Entrance Song ?
